THE ARTISTS

Sonic Sunset is proud to present only the best quality. For this time, we wouldn't feel like using low quality scans and offer the bare minimun.

We are thankful to all the artist who participated with their powers to redraw every single card in this book, with their own hands and no AI involved.

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

INTRODUCTION

Hi there! I'm Amy Rose, and what you have here is your very own Fortune Card Deck! Let me share with you why I find the Fortune Cards so exciting, plus my guidance on how to use your own set.

I love to explore all the strange and wonderful regions in the world like the world-famous hero, Sonic the Hedgehog! He inspired me to be my very best. I put together my Fortune Card Deck with cards I found during my travels, so I'm still developing my deck. You can do the same-mix and match this deck with others, add in a few favorites, stuff like that. Your deck should be your own, just like my deck is special to me!

When I'm not adventuring with Sonic or cooking in the kitchen, I use my Fortune Card Deck to seek out my own adventures. I use these cards for divination-when I do readings, I try to interpret the meanings of the cards I pull and use them as guidance for what to do next. Don't think of them as spoilers for the future. Think of them as signposts or landmarks to help you get your bearings. It's up to you to forge your own fate and find your own fortune!

We all have to start somewhere, and these cards can be read in a lot of different ways. I've been using my cards for so long that I know them like the back of my hand, so I wrote up this handy little manual to help you learn what each Fortune Card means. You'll be a pro in no time!

Whether you're playing around, earnestly looking for insight, or doing Fortune Readings for your dearest friends, remember that you're in control. Listen to your heart, and I'm sure you'll find your way.

Happy Fortune Hunting!

THE CARDS

You'll find seventy-eight cards in this Fortune Card Deck. Each one holds many meanings depending on their rank, suit, value, and even orientation! Orientation is the difference between drawing the card in an upright Hero Draw and a reversed Dark Draw. What do those mean? Let me tell you!

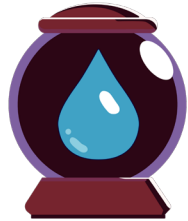
When you draw your cards, if they're right side up, it's what I call a Hero Draw. This is the true, honest meaning of the card. It won't always be positive, but it's better to face the hard parts of your adventure with a clear view. If the card is upside down, I call it a Dark Draw. This is the inverse of the card's true meaning. This could be a warning of things to come or an unfortunate truth. Sometimes it inverts the negativity of the card, though, so I say that's fortune smiling on you!

The first twenty-two cards are called Major Fortunes. They represent big events in time, whether they're past, present, or future. They can also represent important lessons that you've learned or will be learning soon. They're numbered zero to twenty-one and feature major elements and themes found in life.

The other fifty-six cards are the Minor Fortunes. Just because they're "minor" doesn't mean they're not important, though! They're all about daily occurrences and brief events. Think of them as your small adventures during your epic quest! They're divided into four suits: Fire, Water, Lightning, and Rings. There are fourteen cards per suit: King, Queen, Knight, and Page, which represent personality types, and then Ace through ten.

The Suit of Fire is all about that fiery passion, that burning desire to get up and act! The warmth and light can energize you to do great things, so look for these cards when you really need some motivation. Unlike the Suit of Lightning, which is about thoughtfulness and insight, the Suit of Fire is about following your heart. (Can you guess which suit is my favorite? Haha!) The fire that burns brightest burns briefest, though, and a poorly kept fire can burn out of control. Don't be reckless! Your Hero Draws will typically encourage your ambitions and help you make your plans before taking action. A Dark Draw with the Suit of Fire is usually a warning about being reckless. You'll need to ask yourself if you really know what you're trying to do.

The Suit of Water is about the tides within us- our hopes, our dreams, our emotions, ebbing and flowing like the sea. If you're adrift in your relationships, maybe these cards can help you chart a course. Or maybe you'll realize your dreams in their reflective waters. Just don't dive too deep! Dreams and desires are great motivators, but you also have to live your life to its fullest! Look for Hero Draws if you want insights into your relationships or you're trying to make some sense of your wildest dreams. A Dark Draw is probably warning you about getting lost in your fantasies Listen to that little voice in your heart!



¡The Suit of Lightning is about that flash of inspiration! It's the light of truth zipping through the air, reaching others with lightning speed! Look for these cards when you want a bold, decisive decision. But it's still lightning, y'know? Its power can be dangerous and destructive too. Handle Lightning cards with caution! When pulled in a Hero Draw, they're likely showing you greater insight, giving you that "ah-ha!" moment, and getting right to the point.

If you've gotten a Dark Draw, they're warning you of being too rash or not taking other people's feelings into account.

Finally, the Suit of Rings primarily deals with earthly things. These can include your monetary fortunes and your personal well-being. If you've got questions about your health, your career, or your partner, you'll be looking into the shiny reflections of the Rings! But be careful. While it's good to look after yourself, being too self-centered can lead to greedy, selfish decisions. When you pull a Rings card in a Hero Draw, it usually means your career, health, and personal well-being are golden! But a Dark Draw may mean the Suit of Rings is warning you of greed or selfish decisions, or indicating that you're ignoring your health.

One last note: You'll see some of the cards are gendered, like the Queens and Kings. All these cards are open to interpretation, so no matter how you identify, every card is right for you! Look for the deeper meaning of each card and think about how it relates to you. Remember: Have fun!

MAJOR FORTUNE

TRAVEL
TRAVEL

TRAVEL

THE FOOL

Travel represents the free spirit out and about, exploring the world. It's a new adventure with endless possibilities! It's all about seeing the world with fresh eyes and experiencing things for the first time. Plot a course, follow your map, and be sure to take detours along the way!

Hero Draw: You're about to start something new and exciting! Or you're approaching something with a fresh perspective, experiencing it anew. Either way. you're about to enter unexplored territory, so be prepared for anything. Happy trails!

Dark Draw: You're lost in the woods and really should've planned better. Just because you're trying something new doesn't mean you shouldn't think things through first. Look out for people who will try to lead you even further astray. It might be time to turn around and go back the way you came.

I
MASTER

THE MAGICIAN

"The servers are the seven Chaos. Chaos is power, enriched by the heart. The controller is the one who unifies the Chaos." This card represents willpower, control, and the will to shape one's destiny.

Hero Draw: You have a vision! You want to create, and you have the drive to see your ambitions through. This card tells you you're on the right track and you should totally take your time setting everything up first. Get organized and get going!

Dark Draw: You're fooling yourself with your ambition. I love your self-confidence, but there's no shame in admitting you're not ready for something. Or there may be someone preying on your desire to get things done. Make sure that encouragement is genuine! Don't be reckless, and consider what's really in front of you

MASTER

SKYBORNE ASPIRATIONS

SKYBORNE ASPIRATIONS

II
SKYBORNE ASPIRATIONS
THE HIGH PRIESTESS

This card is about seeing things from different perspectives- not just observing, but moving between viewpoints for better understanding. It's about intuition and reading the feelings of those around you.

Hero Draw: Listen to your heart! Sometimes what you feel is just as relevant as what you see. We all want to fly, to reach the highest of heavens, but you're right to look before you leap. Go with your gut on this one! That little voice inside you is absolutely right this time

Dark Draw: You're not being true to yourself. Being honest, especially to yourself, is hard sometimes. Or maybe you're really at a loss right now. The card is confirming you're not on the right path. Take a step back, find your center, and ask yourself what you really want.

III
VIRTUOUS HEART

THE EMPRESS

Nurture the world around you, and it will nurture you in return. Taking care of those in your life not only strengthens your bonds of love and friendship it strengthens you as well. When something threatens all that, don't hesitate to stand up for what's right!

Hero Draw: You are beautiful just the way you are. Take care of yourself and those around you. Nurture the good things in your life! Get started on that gardening project and be ready to reap a bountiful crop soon! Lots of good stuff is growing on (tee-hee!).

Dark Draw: You need to stand on your own two feet. There's nothing wrong with asking for help from time to time, but not for every little thing. You may be doing fine, but this card is warning you that it's at the expense of everyone around you. Step back and reexamine what you're doing and what everyone else is doing for you.

VIRTUOUS HEART
VIRTUOUS HEART

MONSTRUM MACHINA

MONSTRUM MACHINA

IV
MONSTRUM MACHINA
THE EMPEROR

A powerful force is present, and it demands respect. It can bring about order through its authority and take control of a wild situation. It can be nurturing if you tinker with it, or it can be oppressive.

Hero Draw: Things are going to work out! You'll get a handle on all the craziness going on. It will come to order, and you'll get the guidance and support you need right now. Listen to your heart, but let your head be the guide this time. Find the balance between what you feel is right and what you know is right.

Dark Draw: The rules are stifling. You have no room to do things your own way. You're lacking the warmth and support you need right now. You may feel trapped or alone, which is all the more reason to be proactive. It's time to believe in yourself!

V
BABYLON

THE HIEROPHANT

Everybody's coming together! This card represents the group working as one for a common goal. The issue could be related to your family, whether it's the one you're born into or the one you've found. It could be related to the team you're on. Everyone's synced and ready to go!

Hero Draw: Go with what you know! Everyone's on the same wavelength, so roll with your team! Stick to your tried-and-true methods for now and save the riskier gambits for later.

Dark Draw: You need to go against the grain. You've got a new perspective, and while everyone may not like it, they need to hear it. There may be friction, so be careful to take everyone's feelings into account. You're in for a bumpy ride!

BABYLON

BABYLON

FRUIT

FRUIT

THE LOVERS

This card shows both a Dark Fruit and a Hero Fruit, which represent duality and union. Both can lead to different things, but both bring nourishment and satisfaction. Just because things are opposites doesn't mean they don't belong together!

Hero Draw: This card shows both a Dark Fruit and a Hero Fruit, which represent duality and union. Both can lead to different things, but both bring nourishment and satisfaction. Just because things are opposites doesn't mean they don't belong together!

Dark Draw: There's an imbalance somewhere. There's dissonance because things have become one-sided. You'll need to work to find that old harmony again. Or you may need to ask the hard question: Was this really working to begin with? It may be time to move on.

VII

THE CHARIOT

The themes of this card are all about the will and its power to drive you forward. Rolling around at the speed of sound with a steadfast heart of gold will show others what you're made of! It's the push to continue, no matter the odds.

Hero Draw: You've got everything you need to forge ahead confidently. You know where you're going. You know how to keep things under control. You have the will to see your goals through. Be bold and roll forward with your head held high!

Dark Draw: Whoa! Ease off the throttle! You're out of control, and you're going way off course. The card is also warning you that you're being way too aggressive and making things uncomfortable for those who are along for the ride. Take a second to realign yourself. You want to reach your goals in one piece, right?

FREEDOM'S WIND

FREEDOM'S WIND

HERO

STRENGTH

This card is about a major influence in your life. Maybe something is pushing you to act. Maybe you've found the courage and the strength to finally act on something. There's a focus now, a determination that wasn't there before.

Hero Draw: The strength you need is inside you! Be brave as you make your decision and forge ahead! When things get tough or scary, you know you have it within you to overcome. Or if you're doubting yourself, this card is telling you it's okay-you've got this!

Dark Draw: You're scared, but you need to ask yourself if that self-doubt is really legit. It's time to confront your fears or meet your challenges head on. No more worrying, no more hesitating-it's time for action!

IX

LONE GUARDIAN

THE HERMIT

Sometimes you are your best teacher. When alone, you can stop and think about your present condition and look inside yourself. There are truths about you and your world that can only be found in your heart, and they're easier to find without distractions.

Hero Draw: You should take some time for yourself and do some self-reflection. Think about what's going on for a while on your own terms. Some alone time will do you good. You need to get away from the distractions and obligations, if even for a little bit. No one is an island, but you can still take a break and drift!

Dark Draw: You're lonely or alone. Maybe now is the time to reach out to others for some help. You've been on your own for so long that you're not sure how to reconnect It can be scary and hard, but the card is telling you it's time to make the effort. You'll be better for it!

TIME

TIME

WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Time is cyclical, and that's why clocks are round! (I'm kidding!) The past can repeat itself, and we can chart the future by paying attention to where we've been. Everything changes, but everything comes around again, too.

Hero Draw: Change is on the horizon. Maybe you saw it coming, maybe not, but you should be ready for it Pay attention to where you've been and think about where you want to be. You'll be making that journey soon!

Dark Draw: Things are completely out of your hands. Sometimes you can do everything right and still come up short. Even when you consider everything you can, there will be something that takes you by surprise. Chin up! This, too, will pass.

XI
JUSTICE

JUSTICE

Every action has a reaction. Another way to look at it is that "you reap what you sow." Whatever has come before is about to get its resolution. A new truth will come to light, or whatever was put in motion will finally wrap up.

Hero Draw: You're going to get some kind of satisfying resolution! Maybe it's the answer you were waiting for. Maybe something finally pays off. Either way, you'll be gaining closure, and it's like the happy ending you were hoping for. How exciting!

Dark Draw: There's something sketchy going on Someone may not be telling the truth, and they're leading you astray Or someone is being treated unfairly, and that injustice is building. Take a good look at those around you make sure you're doing right by them and they're treating you how you should be treated.

UNBOUND FUTURE

UNBOUND FUTURE

XII
UNBOUND FUTURE

HANGED MAN

When you dream of absolution, you often need to take on a new perspective. If the old ways of doing things aren't working out, learning a new method or approach may get results. Sometimes that means sacrificing something or letting something go, but it may be necessary..

Hero Draw: It's time for a leap of faith. You've been holding yourself back, and the card is telling you to accept that you're not in total control. You're going to have to leave something behind, even if it's hard, and accept the future ahead of you.

Dark Draw: You may be dragging your feet because you're afraid to commit to something. Is it worth the risk? Really look at what you may lose and ask yourself if it's truly okay. Not everything requires a sacrifice, or what you want may not be worth the cost you'd have to pay. Respect your own worth!

XIII

DEATH

Change happens. You can worry about it or prepare for it, but it's going to happen eventually. The end of one adventure is the beginning of another. The power to bring about that change can be scary, and it's not always under our control.

Hero Draw: There's going to be a big change for you. Something will be wrapping up or transforming into something new and wonderful. It's going to be jarring, and you may need time to adjust to your new situation. Brace yourself!

Dark Draw: Things have to change. It's scary, but your situation is stagnating as it is. It's past time to let go and move on. The card is telling you that you missed the best time to embrace change, but it still needs to be done. Better late than never, right? Be strong!

ETERNAL FLAME

ETERNAL FLAME

XIV

TEMPERANCE

A steady flame can bring peace, light the way, and provide comfort. Keeping the flame stable takes patience and attention. You have to be dedicated to maintaining the balance to keep it burning steady and true.

Hero Draw: Take your time! Be patient and find the real meaning behind what's going on. Keep things fair and balanced. Now is the time to make sure everyone is treated fairly and your plans are enacted slowly and steadily. Go for a constant, even burn instead of a blaze of glory.

Dark Draw: Things are all out of whack! Something has gone to an extreme, and that's not fair to everyone involved. You're at risk of burning out your team or yourself. Walk it back and find some balance! You don't want all your hard work to go up in smoke.

XV
UNYIELDING DARKNESS

THE DEVIL

This card symbolizes an all-consuming darkness that is starting to take hold. Things are getting out of control in a very personal way. Bad things can happen when you slacken all your restraints, even if it's with the best intentions. Please be careful!

Hero Draw: You're letting your negative impulses take control, or you're losing sight of what really matters to you. We all have our temptations, and a little indulgence here and there is okay, but this card is warning you that it's going too far. Know your limits, and don't let what you want take control of what you know you need to do or what you should be doing.

Dark Draw: You're finally letting go or breaking free of something. You're getting a handle on things again. You may have been in a very dark place, whether by your own doing or because of someone else, and you're emerging from the other side at long last. Keep it up!

UNYIELDING DARKNESS

DOOM

DOOM

THE TOWER

There aren't any "bad" cards in the Major Fortunes, but this one is a doozy. There's a major change that needed to happen a long time ago, and now it's going to come to pass whether you're ready or not. This can lead to great things in the long run, but be prepared for a major shake-up!

Hero Draw: A major event is going to happen soon! It may not be the most comfortable transition, but it's something you really need to happen. Look on the bright side and make the most of the situation. Be part of the moment, not just a spectator!

Dark Draw: You narrowly missed out on disaster, or it's been delayed. Now's your time to prepare! This is a golden opportunity to control your fate and change things for the better. You have a second chance, so make the most of it!

XVII
STATUE SAVIOR

THE STAR

I always feel better when this one comes up in the mix. It represents the hope for something better and rejuvenation after a trying ordeal. Have faith in yourself and your friends- you'll get through the tough times! This card lets you know things will be alright.

Hero Draw: You've got this! With some patience, planning, and a little bit of luck, it'll all turn out okay in the end. Trust in yourself and your personal network. They'll be there for you, and I know you'll be there for them. You all have a lot to look forward to!

Dark Draw: You're discouraged and insecure about something. You've lost faith that your situation can be turned around. This card isn't saying things are hopeless! It's saying that's how you feel right now. With that truth in mind, you can choose how to move on. Hang in there! I'm rooting for you!

STATUE SAVIOR

PHANTOM

PHANTOM

XVIII
PHANTOM

THE MOON

The Fortune Cards can help you guess what's to come, but this card is a big shrug. Not even the Fortune Cards can pierce the veil of uncertainty sometimes! This card means that things are mysterious, or that you're not going to understand what's going on by observation alone.

Hero Draw: Things aren't what they seem. You're not getting the full picture, which might be because of the situation or because someone doesn't want you to know the full truth. You're not going to get all the answers directly. Trust in your intuition and listen to your heart.

Dark Draw: Things are confusing, or you're afraid because you don't understand what's going on Maybe you misunderstood something crucial. Take a breath and reevaluate! Chasing shadows isn't going to get you anywhere. You can't move forward without a better understanding.

XIX
COMPANIONS

THE SUN

This is one of my favorite cards! It's all about warmth, friendship, and good times! It's a celebration of the joy that comes from being together with the ones you love and who love you in return.

Hero Draw: Good things are coming your way! Whether that means great success or something joyous, I'm sure you deserve it! It's a purely good time in your life, so savor the moment. Let those you're with know how much you enjoy their company and value their friendship.

Dark Draw: It feels like a dark cloud has passed in front of your sunny day. You're having a hard time looking on the bright side of life. This card is to remind you that the sun is still there and there's still goodness to be had, you're just having trouble seeing it right now. I'm sure you'll find it again!

JUDGMENT

JUDGMENT

Judgment can sound like a harsh word, but it's something we all need from time to time. We must look at ourselves, look at where we are, and decide if everything is as it should be. Sometimes this can bring about a change we didn't know we needed until we judged it so!

Hero Draw: Now's the time to stop and reflect. Make that big decision, but not until after some careful thought. Not everything is immediately clear, so take your time and consider everything that you can. Careful deliberation is needed here!

Dark Draw: You're not sure what to do. Maybe it's because you haven't paying attention and you're missing some key factors, or maybe you don't believe in yourself. It's hard to make a decision when you don't trust your own judgment. Either way, it's not too late to reassess!

XXI

Here we are at the end of the Major Fortune cards It's been quite the journey, right? So it makes sense the final card is about completion and fulfillment. Take a look back at all you've done and all you've learned, then use that as context for everything else.

Hero Draw: You did it! There's a feeling of accomplishment, success, and fulfillment. Your journey has come to an end, your project has been completed, or you've understood a vital truth. There will be future adventures, but for now, you've reached the end. I'm proud of you!

Dark Draw: It's not over yet. You know there are still things left unfinished, or there's been no sense of closure. You could call it quits here, but you'll feel unresolved and unfulfilled. You have to see things through to their proper conclusion. Keep at it! I believe in you!

GAIA
GAIA

MINOR FORTUNE

FIRE CARDS

KING

Hero Draw: You're like Silver. You're driven by hope and are determined to overcome any and all challenges for the larger role. You're capable of overcoming the obstacles ahead of you. You can see the big picture and can lead others to achieve your collective goals-which I'm sure Silver can achieve himself one day!

Dark Draw: You should try to be less impulsive, especially when doing something well beyond your abilities. This draw cautions you about setting realistic goals and encourages you to appreciate the efforts- and limits of those you're working with.

QUEEN

Hero Draw: You're like Blaze You are courageous! You face adversity with determination. You bring warmth and joy to others. There's a degree of grace and dignity in this card's meaning. Determining how it applies to your circumstances may be tricky, given how specific it is.

Dark Draw: Watch out for negative emotions that come from being unsure. Jealousy and selfishness drive others away. If you're feeling insecure, this draw is warning you to seek help rather than let doubts poison your mood and ruin your interactions.

KNIGHT

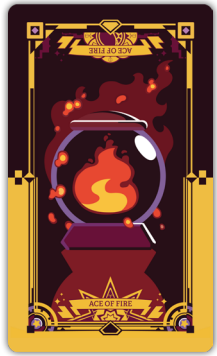
Hero Draw: You're like Gardon: You are fearless You're passionate about your cause and will energetically tackle any trial. While this card is attractive for its razzle-dazzle themes of action and adventure, its real heart is fearlessness. Just make sure you're not being reckless-it's easy to confuse the two!

Dark Draw: You're quick to anger, and you're acting on impulse. Haste makes waste, so don't be reckless This draw warns against the dark side of ambition and the toxic misunderstanding of strength. Don't let proactive action make you the aggressor.

PAGE

Hero Draw: You're like Marine: You're driven by a love of exploration! The freedom to charge out boldly excites you. This card encourages that adventurous inclination to experience new things. It might be telling you now is the time to answer the call of the wild!

Dark Draw: Don't procrastinate just because you don't have a direction in mind. Don't let negative thoughts bring you down! This draw warns against missing out due to inactivity, or even activity-you may be causing the friction that's getting you down. Step back and see how you can get things shipshape again.



ACE

Hero Draw: It's time to blaze a new trail! You're inspired, so look for new ways to expand and prosper. This card can signify creation, desire, and willpower- all keys to a great artistic project, if you ask me!

Dark Draw: You're just not feeling it right now. You don't have the energy to get moving. It's hard to be inspired when you're bored. This draw suggests a lack of passion, which might mean you need to take a break or ask what got you started on this path to begin with.

II

Hero Draw: You've got a plan, so now it's time to follow through! Step out of your comfort zone with confidence. This card has far-reaching meanings. It could simply be a sign that you need to make a minor decision, or it could indicate something as grand as leaving home. It's all about how the draw fits into your context!

Dark Draw: You haven't thought through all the implications of the decisions you face. Change can be intimidating, so you're playing it safe. It's fine to be cautious, especially if you know you're not prepared, but don't let that keep you from considering all your options.

III

Hero Draw: You look to the horizon and see room to quickly expand! This card suggests proactive foresight. That doesn't just mean thinking through what's coming next; it also means considering how you can develop the situation from there. That's a broad concept, so reflect on how it best fits you!

Dark Draw: You're getting frustrated with all these obstacles delaying you. This draw doesn't say what's getting in your way, but it can point to why you're feeling so stuck. Look for the cause and see if you can clear the way ahead.

IV

Hero Draw: It's a homecoming! Everyone's getting together to celebrate. This card, at its core, is about the happiness and high spirits that come from someone returning. Is it referring to you? Are you expecting someone you haven't seen in a long time?

Dark Draw: You're feeling adrift without support. This draw implies transience. You may be listless because you don't have the network you need at the moment. You could be having problems at home. Use this card as a context for the rest of your reading.

Hero Draw: Things are heating up! You've got a strong rivalry going on as you compete, and it might get rough! Healthy competition is fine, but beware of things flaring up into a full-fledged conflict.

Dark Draw: You're making an effort to keep the peace. You're respectful of others' points of view. Here the draw suggests a situation got too heated already, and now you need to walk things back. Even if you don't agree, everyone can be civil, right?

VI

Hero Draw: You did it! You came out on top, and everybody knows it. Enjoy the rewards and attention today. One aspect of this card indicates that your success will be public knowledge, which can be thrilling or too much, depending on how you feel. It's up to you and your circumstances.

Dark Draw: You feel like you're not getting noticed enough, or you're getting attention for all the wrong reasons. You may need to swallow your pride, or maybe you need to understand why others are reacting the way they are.

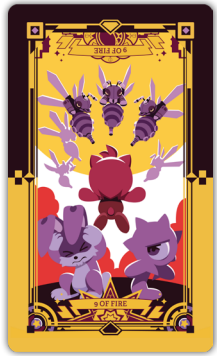
Hero Draw: Things are getting rough, but you're meeting them head on! Your guard is up, and you're staying in control. This card says you're maintaining discipline, though you may be on the defensive. That's understandable, but don't be afraid to accept a helping hand!

Dark Draw: It's all too much. You've lost your nerve, and things are overwhelming. You may have to admit defeat and try again. Your confidence may be severely shaken, but there's no shame in acknowledging that you've reached your limit. I think this draw is saying it's time to take a break and start anew.

VIII

Hero Draw: It's time to be quick! Don't dwell on details: just make your decision and run with it. This card is telling you that you'll need to be fast with a decision, movement, or action. While it's usually good to stop and consider your options, you may not have that luxury right now.

Dark Draw: You're slowing down or waiting for what comes next. Is this because you're panicking? This draw is cautioning you not to get stopped in your tracks. If you have to slow down, be sure that it's to make the next steps manageable and that you're still moving forward. Stay strong!



IX

Hero Draw: Dig your heels in! This is your final test, and you've drawn your line in the sand. I believe in you! This card signifies resilience and grit. Whatever you're facing, it says you have the tenacity to meet it head on. I'm rooting for you!

Dark Draw: You're wondering if all the effort was worth it. You're tapped out and ready to throw in the towel. I know you're tired-exhausted, even-but don't give up! There's nothing wrong with taking time to recharge, but never lose your ambition. Like I said, I'm rooting for you!

X

Hero Draw: You've been trusted with extra work. You feel the strain, but you're going to see it through to the end. This card covers both sides of hard work: It can be grueling but also rewarding to accomplish your goal. Remember: This is your responsibility.

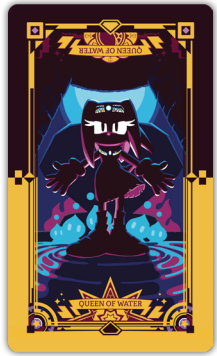
Dark Draw: You've taken on too much when you should've entrusted some to others. You're approaching burnout. This draw warns you, indirectly, that you should be more trusting of your team. You can't do everything by yourself, y'know. Be careful!

WATER CARDS

KING

Hero Draw: You're like Chaos: You are naturally balanced and in control. Your heart is full of love and compassion. Like the Queen of Water, this card is about comfort and stability. It may be the reassurance that those things exist, or it may be a prompt that compassion and control need to be brought in.

Dark Draw: Your temper is making you cold and destructive toward those around you. Don't let negativity sway you! This draw warns against bad advice, which may come from a bad attitude. Look to the long term. Just because things aren't great now doesn't mean they should affect your decisions for the foreseeable future.



QUEEN

Hero Draw: You're like Tikal: You're calm and compassionate, and you bring comfort and joy to everyone you interact with. This card has a major nurturing vibe. It may be prompting you to be the support someone needs, or it could be telling you that a special someone is out there waiting for you. If things seem stormy, know there's a safe port nearby.

Dark Draw: You're set to sacrifice yourself. You feel like you don't have the strength to do what you want on your own. This draw should make you stop and evaluate. Sacrificing oneself for the good of others is noble, but does it need to be that way? Can you do more to save someone the burden of doing too much?

KNIGHT

Hero Draw: Just like Big, you enjoy the simple joys in life. You follow your heart and live in the moment This card encourages you to slow down and savor what the world has to offer. Maybe your situation can be resolved by simply letting go. It's okay to allow yourself to go with the flow this time.

Dark Draw: Disappointment can bring you down, but it shouldn't hold you back. Sometimes you don't find what (or whom) you are looking for right away. This draw is about managing expectations. Not everything will work out perfectly. It's okay to be dissatisfied, but you shouldn't let that ruin your day.

PAGE

Hero Draw: You're like the Chao: You're sensitive to change, but also full of happy surprises and big dreams! This card highlights sensitivity, so be mindful of yourself and those around you. This card could also mean fortune is smiling on you, so take it as a good omen!

Dark Draw: Like the Chao, you're showing your emotional immaturity. Look at your insecurities and temper your disappointment. This draw warns of discontent and especially of poor reactions to it. Temper yourself and be patient with those around you who may be really put out.

ACE

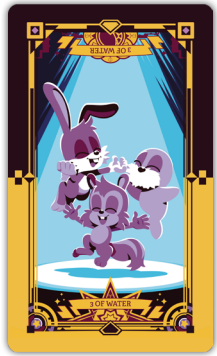
Hero Draw: Your spirit is calm and your mind is clear, like a tranquil pool of water. You can perceive new feelings, new loves, and new ideas. This card says to trust your intuition. Now is the time to look at the spiritual over the material.

Dark Draw: You're so focused inward, things around you just bounce off. Blocking out too much will leave you feeling empty and uninspired. This draw is warning you not to suppress your creative inspirations. Don't deny yourself emotional connections, or you'll be left feeling as hollow as a bubble.

II

Hero Draw: This card says you're about to meet someone new and make an exciting connection. If you were wondering whether to engage, the answer is yes! It's time to see where the two of you and your relationship go.

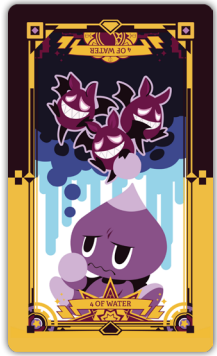
Dark Draw: You're feeling some tension right now because of a lack of communication, or you're dealing with a breakup. There's an imbalance in a relationship that's important to you, and it might be helped by simply talking it out.



III

Hero Draw: It's time to party! Now's a great time to gather up your good friends and have a blast! This card says you'll find happiness by connecting with your community, so make sure to find time for them. I'm certain they'd love to see you, too!

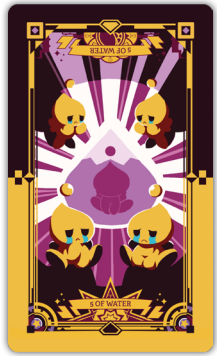
Dark Draw: So maybe you partied a little hard last time? This draw is either a warning or a reminder that the fun has gotten a bit out of hand in the past. Look to where you can dial things back, or maybe there's a gossip chain you can help break.



IV

Hero Draw: You're feeling disconnected since you're so lost in thought. It's hard to care about things right now. Contemplation isn't bad in itself, but this card warns against getting so tangled up in introspection that you isolate yourself and become apathetic..

Dark Draw: You've had an epiphany. It's okay to be happy. You're allowed to accept good things in your life. This draw reminds us that something as simple as coming to terms with what's going on can bring happiness, too.



V

Hero Draw: You're grieving, probably over losing something precious. You're taking time to mourn what you've lost. This card reminds us that in times of loss, we're suffering, too. Don't forget to take a step back and process your feelings.

Dark Draw: You're making peace with what's going on around you. The heartbreak still stings, but you're ready to feel again. You're realizing it's time to move on. This draw is a prompt to say that it's okay and healing is natural. You can accept that you're okay now.

VI

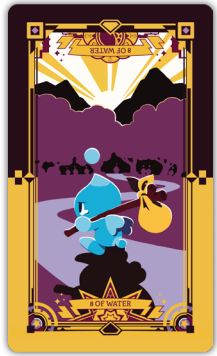
Hero Draw: Now is the time for healing. Bask in the warmth of fond memories and things you find comforting and familiar. The past can be both a balm and a teacher. Look back on the good times, enjoy them, and see what lessons you learned. Maybe they can help again.

Dark Draw: You're leaving things behind. It's all about you now, and you're shifting away freely from old connections. You may be leaving home to set out on your own, or you're finding your own form of independence. The point is that you're moving forward of your own will.

VII

Hero Draw: You're getting lost in thought as you search for what to do next. Anything is possible in your dreams! This card says you're looking for a purpose. You may be spoiled for choice. Just don't get too caught up daydreaming about all the possibilities!

Dark Draw: This draw warns you about getting too caught up in the moment. All the plans in the world mean nothing if you don't follow through on them. Don't let all your preparations distract you from your actual goal. Get up and go!



VIII

Hero Draw: This card says, "Enough is enough." You're feeling disillusioned, and it stinks, but you're ready to move on. Instead of focusing on what you're leaving behind, think about the new opportunities that lie ahead!

Dark Draw: You're avoiding the issue. You're afraid of how things may change or what you could stand to lose. This draw is prompting you to ask yourself, "Do I really need to hold on to this? Is it better to let it go and move on to something new?"

IX

Hero Draw: You're in a good place in life. You're satisfied, you're comfortable, and you want for nothing. You've worked hard to reach this point, so now it's time to enjoy the fruits of your labor. Treat yourself! You've earned it!

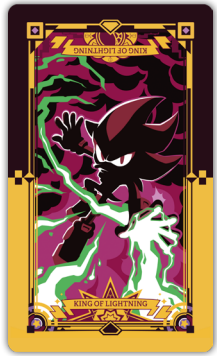
Dark Draw: You can't buy happiness. This draw points to all the things you've amassed and what little, fleeting satisfaction they brought you. It's time to step back and ask yourself what you really need. Here's a hint: It doesn't have a price tag.

X

Hero Draw: Dreams do come true! You feel fulfilled and happy on a deep, personal level. This card can be a reassurance that you are getting that "happily ever after ending. You're right to feel content. I'm so happy for you!

Dark Draw: This draw is saying you're not on the best of terms with the ones you love. You may need to sit down with them and work things out. Keep in mind they're people, too, and you love them for who they are. But if there is no way to reconcile things, it may be time to give yourself some space.

LIGHTNING CARDS



KING

Hero Draw: You're like Shadow: You're driven by what you need to do, not by your emotions. Every action has a purpose and reason behind it. This card is about following your head over your heart, being disciplined, and pursuing the truth.

Dark Draw: Like Shadow, you can be cruelly focused on your goal. You'll let others believe whatever they want as long as you get what you're after. This card warns against being manipulative and cruel. Be mindful of weakness in all its forms and what they can mean.

QUEEN

Hero Draw: You're like Rouge: You're a complex person. You share her perceptiveness and ability to stay focused under pressure. This card is about tackling complex situations with discernment and a clear mind.

Dark Draw: Like Rouge, you're only involved for your own desires. Anyone getting in your way leaves you bitter and cold toward them. This card cautions against being coldhearted to others. Beware of cruelty and resentment.

KNIGHT

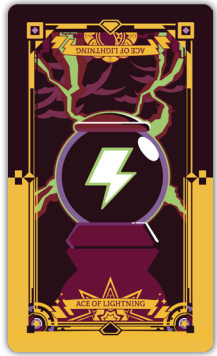
Hero Draw: You're like Omega: You're focused on your mission. You can be hasty, but you're always ready to act. This card is about defending your beliefs and acting decisively, but it also cautions against impulsiveness.

Dark Draw: Like Omega, you'll fly off the handle at a moment's notice. You'll do whatever you want, regardless of what that means to those around you. This card warns about disregarding consequences, being unpredictable, or lacking direction.

PAGE

Hero Draw: You're like Sage. You're driven by your curiosity and keen intellect. This drive leaves you restless, wanting to understand more. This card is all about your mental energies and the will to apply them. Just be careful how you go about your research!

Dark Draw: Like Sage, you won't confront things directly. You say a lot, but you use others to get what you want. This card warns against deception and empty words. Be wary of manipulators, or of manipulating others.



ACE

Hero Draw: A flash of inspiration! Things are suddenly clearer to you now. You've had your breakthrough and are ready to strike, boldly and with assurance.

Dark Draw: Things are a mess right now. You're unsure what to do. Trying to force a fix will only make the situation worse. Avoid brute-force approaches, from yourself or someone else.

II

Hero Draw: You've got a tough choice to make, and both options seem viable. You're polarized and can't decide. You've reached a stalemate, so a compromise might be in order.

Dark Draw: You don't have any good options, so it's down to the lesser of two evils. Despite your best efforts, there really isn't a "good" answer to your problem. It's confusing, so do your best with what you have!

III

Hero Draw: You're suffering from a broken heart. It struck without warning, and now you're recovering. Time heals all wounds, but right now you're coping with your feelings.

Dark Draw: It's time to move on. Mend your broken heart, forgive where you can, and forge ahead stronger. You can recover, but you have to choose to do so.

IV

Hero Draw: It's time to take a break! Restore your energy and think about all you've accomplished. Rest is necessary for growth. Even a storm can't rage forever!

Dark Draw: You're burning out! You're stressed and could really use a break. Your restlessness won't be solved by working harder, but by stopping and taking a breather.

V

Hero Draw: You're going for victory, no matter what! Nothing and no one will stand in your way! Just remember to keep your priorities straight. The price of victory can be high, so stay aware!

Dark Draw: You're still bitter about how things turned out, but deep down you want to move on. You need to reconcile. Even if your feelings are justified, you know you have to take the high road here. Be the bigger person!

VI

Hero Draw: It's time to move on. You have to properly make peace with things, of course, but it's time for that journey to begin. You need to be ready for the next chapter in your life.

Dark Draw: You're having trouble moving on or making peace with what's happened. Some lingering issues haven't been fully resolved. Or it may be that you're dragging your heels because you don't want to make the change.

VII

Hero Draw: There's trickery afoot! A tactical play is being made, and every form of deception and strategy is possible. Pay close attention to what's being said, who is saying it, and why. Take nothing for granted.

Dark Draw: Maybe rethink how you're approaching things. It might be time to come clean about something. There's some form of deception that needs to be rooted out. Is someone misleading another, or maybe themselves?

VIII

Hero Draw: You're feeling trapped, physically or figuratively. Someone is keeping you from what you want and need to do. Then again, it may be you holding yourself back.

Dark Draw: You've realized that you need to accept who you are and what you're all about. You know you need to take on a new outlook. With these insights, you'll be freer than you've ever been before!

IX

Hero Draw: You're feeling hopeless and anxious. This is likely because you've got unprocessed emotions. You need to accept the way you feel. There's no weakness in acknowledging your pain. It's the most empowering thing you can do for yourself.

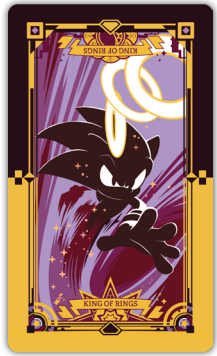
Dark Draw: While you feel despair, you can reach out for help. It's out there, just waiting for you to accept it. Hope springs eternal, and you will come out of this situation stronger.

X

Hero Draw: Well...that went poorly. Not every day can be a victory. Not everything will go right. This card says you've been met with defeat, or something's fallen apart. Use that as a foundation to build from, not a sour note.

Dark Draw: It's bad, but it can't get worse! Things will be resolved, at least. Look for that silver lining and use this moment to find new inspiration. As you rebuild and improve, you can look back and see how far you've come.

Ring Cards



KING

Hero Draw: You're like Sonic: You bring security to others. There are endless possibilities for you! The world's your chili dog! This card symbolizes abundance, prosperity, and the security those things bring. How does that apply to your current situation?

Dark Draw: Watch out for greed. Don't overindulge to the point you're hurting yourself or others. Just because you have a lot doesn't mean you should consume it all at once. This card also warns you that sometimes a friend is just a friend. Respect their boundaries!

QUEEN

Hero Draw: You're like me: You enjoy being comfortable, but you've made sure you can afford that luxury. This card wants you to think about the practicality of how you're approaching your scenario. Keep in mind the things that make you happy, satisfied, and secure.

Dark Draw: Don't let yourself get dragged down by jealousy. You need to think of those around you and give them their space. This draw warns against being self-centered. Jealousy can be one aspect of that. Even overattentiveness can be a form of making yourself the most important person.

KNIGHT

Hero Draw: You're like Knuckles: You're an efficient and hard worker. You take responsibility for all that you do. This card is saying you should look at all these traits and apply them to your reading. Do they signify you? Someone you know? Can you help this reliable person, or will you be that person for someone else?

Dark Draw: Don't get tunnel vision on your work or put in all that effort for nothing. That doesn't mean you can be lazy, though! Work done well can be its own reward, but is that what you're striving for? Are you being diligent or obsessive? This draw wants you to reassess how you're approaching things.

PAGE

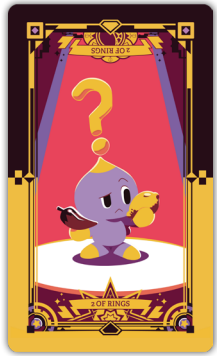
Hero Draw: You're like Tails: You have ambition! You work hard to achieve your vision and get what you want! This card is telling you to focus on your aspirations and desires, and is encouraging you to be diligent in your pursuit of them.

Dark Draw: Be wary of laziness and greed. Nothing good will come about while there's a lack of commitment. This draw warns you against shirking your responsibilities or being too idle or greedy. Be the best you can be!

A S

Hero Draw: There's a new opportunity for you! Look into new ventures and enjoy the prosperity. This card encourages you to seize the moment and reap the rewards of your initiative.

Dark Draw: You missed your chance. Sorry! Or maybe that investment of yours turned sour. Better luck next time! This draw represents a lost opportunity, so use that as context for your whole read.



II

Hero Draw: You need to balance things out. Weigh your decisions carefully, and be ready to change your plans! This card encourages you to gauge your priorities and be adaptable.

Dark Draw: You've feeling overwhelmed! Things are out of balance. This draw says you and your circumstances are disorganized, which may inform the rest of your reading.

III

Hero Draw: Your team is really in sync! Work together to build something great. This card is highlighting collaboration in your life, so focus on that. Make the most of this time together!

Dark Draw: Your team is falling apart! Nobody is cooperating, and everything is disorganized. The problem may be simple disorganization, or there could be friction between teammates. Either way, this draw is flagging itself for your attention!

IV

Hero Draw: You're saving for a rainy day. Now isn't the time for risky ventures. It's better to be secure right now. If being frugal doesn't make sense, look at other ways you can conserve your time or resources. Security should be your top priority!

Dark Draw: You're being miserly. You don't need to be so possessive. Loosen up and live a little! If it's not about money, this draw is at least pointing out that you're holding on to something too tightly. Don't be afraid to share.

V

Hero Draw: You're in a tight spot because you don't have what you need at the moment. Unfortunately, the world keeps turning, so you need to think of something-quick! Look at what resources you have and see what you can do to get by right now.

Dark Draw: Things are getting better! Thanks to good luck or someone's charity, everything is turning around for you. This draw is letting you know you're on the path to recovery and improving your lot in life. Hang on a bit longer!

VI

Hero Draw: It's a charitable day! Either you're helping those in need, or someone is helping you out. Maybe you're able to pay it forward, or maybe you can share what you have. You'll be helping others, and that's the important thing!

Dark Draw: Someone is using another's troubles to their advantage. Watch out for offers that come with strings attached! This draw warns you that sometimes someone's stinginess is their way of controlling others.

VII

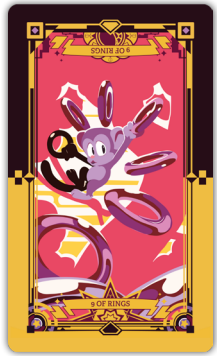
Hero Draw: Today is all about hard work. Keep at it! Persevere until the end and achieve your goals! This card is saying that your diligence will pay off eventually, so keep going a bit longer. It'll be worth it.

Dark Draw: You're not getting a lot of results today, no matter how hard you work. Maybe you're feeling distracted today. Or this draw could be warning you that all your efforts won't be rewarded. Might be time to reassess what you've got going on.

VIII

Hero Draw: You're eager to learn! Listen to your teachers and let your passion drive you forward. This card is also about high standards, so reflect on whether these are goals you've set for yourself or the expectations others have for you.

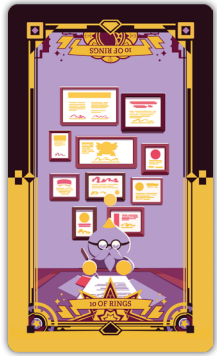
Dark Draw: You just can't find the spark today. You've lost the inspiration or the motivation to get things done. This draw isn't a criticism! It's telling you that the lack of motivation is a factor you should take into consideration.



IX

Hero Draw: You've worked hard, and now you can enjoy the fruits of your labor. Treat yourself-you've earned it! This card says you've received some kind of reward or you're enjoying a luxury. How does that affect the other aspects of your life?

Dark Draw: Things aren't going nearly as well as you think! You need to exercise some restraint. This draw warns against living beyond your means. Don't be fooled by a fleeting bit of success. Look at the bigger picture.



X

Hero Draw: Everything has led to this point. You're inheriting all that has come before. It's a big day for you! This card could also be saying that you've reached the culmination of a long-term event. Be mindful of how you got here.

Dark Draw: What you have won't last long. You need to stock up or get things in order before it's too late! Even if everything's going great for you right now, you should think about tomorrow. Do you have what you need for the long haul? Are things as sure and stable as you think they are?

DECK READING

Nobody can really say what the future holds. That's what makes it so exciting! That uncertainty can also be frightening, so I understand wanting to have an idea of where things are going. I know I've used my Fortune Card Deck just for fun and to make me feel more comfortable in stressful times.

The important thing is to be honest with yourself. Whether you believe in the magic of the Fortune Cards or treat them like a game, you're not going to get far if you're being insincere. Always remember to open your heart. I promise it'll be alright!

CARING FOR YOUR DECK

There are lots of ways you can take care of your Fortune Card Deck. Keeping the cards neat and tidy in their box is the obvious way, but I'm talking about their mystical properties! The simplest method is to give them a good, thorough shuffle every so often. Maybe it's been a long time between readings. Maybe you just did a bunch back to back or you had a doozy of a reading. Shuffling helps to refresh their energy!

Another idea is to keep your cards in a clean environment. Chao, those adorable little water babies, can be found in places of clean, pure water. Wisps, those childlike aliens, like to gather in verdant areas. My point is that all the cute and wholesome creatures I've met flourish in pristine environments. So give your Fortune Card Deck a nice bag to rest in, a dust-free spot on your shelf, or a snug place between your favorite books. Also, clean your room.

The energies of a Chaos Emerald would do wonders to invigorate and rejuvenate your deck! But I understand that the seven mystic gems of world-changing, miraculous power can be a little hard to come by. It's fine if you use other, smaller crystals instead. Simple, clear prisms can channel the ambient energy around you just fine. I like to have one for each Chaos Emerald color: red, yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple, and clear. It all comes down to what you can find for yourself and what makes you feel the most comfortable!

PREPARING TO READ

Before you start, try to calm your heart and mind. You might be doing a reading for fun, and you're excited about what you're about to find out. You might be anxious about the future, and you just need some reassurance to ease your stress. No matter what, you want to be in a place where you're ready to listen. You don't have to be perfectly zen! You just need to be ready for whatever the cards will tell you.

Shuffle the cards as best you can. Some people shuffle them like playing cards; others do it hand over hand to keep them from bending. You can also spread them around and mix them up on the floor- whatever works for you!

If a card pops out while you're shuffling, set it aside! Fortune has smiled on that card, and it will have a special meaning in your reading. Depending on which style of reading you choose, you may apply it to the whole reading. If an extra card pops out when you draw a card, apply it to that card you just drew.

FORTUNE CARD SPREADS

NEVER LAKE'S CLARITY

1

3

This is a quick three-card read that I used all the time when I was younger. It's okay if you don't remember what every card means-that's why you have this handy book! Remember: The Fortune Cards are open to interpretation, so let the cards' meanings help you find the true messages for your situation.

HOW TO PREPARE THE READ

1. Shuffle the cards however you like. Ask your question as you shuffle.
2. Spread the cards in an arc in front of you. Make sure you have room to give each card a bit of space!
3. Look across the arc and pick three cards that seem to be standing out, starting from left to right.

HOW TO READ

1. Your Future
   Your immediate future. Look at your card and its draw. These are signs to look out for or elements that will affect the rest of your read. This is the motivation for your journey.
2. Your Present
   This represents you! Look at the meaning and see how it applies to your question or what you plan to do. Is it the starting point you were expecting? Look back at your first card and consider how it is influencing you now. What made you ask this question? What prompted you to take action?
3. Your Fortune
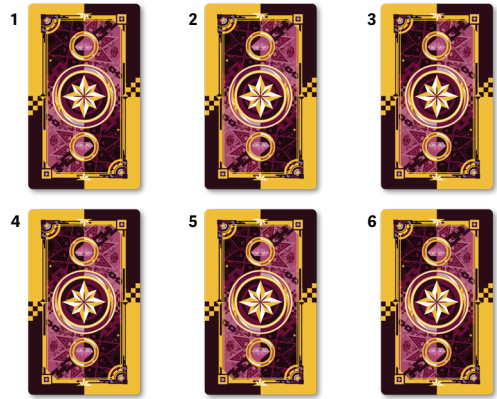
   This is the resolution. The answer you found or the action you take from the second card will result in the third card. Is it what you wanted? If not, look at your first card and see how it influenced your decisions.

TIME STONE CIRCUIT



This is a more complex reading when you want additional context and more insight going ahead. Take your time looking at all the pieces and figuring out how they fit. There's not always a straight line. Sometimes the Fortune Cards reveal secret truths and influences you didn't know about. Once you've finished your reading, you'll have the full context of your question. You'll see what needs to be changed, or you'll have an idea of what you can look forward to.

HOW TO PREPARE THE READ

1. Shuffle the cards however you like. Ask your question as you shuffle.
2. Spread the cards in an arc in front of you. Make sure you have room to give each card a bit of space!
3. Look across the arc and pick six cards that seem to be standing out, starting from left to right.
4. Place them in three columns in the order you drew them, two cards per column.

HOW TO READ

1. Your Past
   This is the context for your question-the reason things are as they are. It may not make sense at first, but that's what the other cards are for!
2. Your Experiences
   This shows how the past affects your present. The events described in the first card cause the events of the second card, which result in your third card. This is the backstory to your personal journey.
3. Your Present
   This is your current situation and the reason you're asking your question. It's the context for what you really want.
4. Your Journey
   This shows you where you're going. It's the path you're currently on. Are you heading in the right direction? Is your path leading you to the answer you want?
5. Your Future
   This is a preview of what you can expect. Your past and your experiences influenced you, and the choices you're preparing to make will lead to this.
6. Your Fortune
   This is the ultimate answer. Look at where you've been and the way you're heading. This is your resolution-the destiny you've crafted for yourself.

THE SEVEN SERVERS

This is a super complex reading based on the Chaos Emeralds. Just like them, this reading has the power to handle some tough scenarios, but that power is hard to control. Take your time considering each piece of the reading carefully and arranging the meanings however they best define you and your question. If fortune smiles on you, you'll get a chance to use a special card representing the Master Emerald. Similar to the powers of that mystical relic, this card can amplify or nullify your reading, so keep an eye out for it!

HOW TO PREPARE THE READ

1. Shuffle the cards however you like. Ask your question as you shuffle.
2. Spread the cards in an arc in front of you. Make sure you have room to give each card a bit of space!
3. Look across the arc and pick seven cards that seem to be standing out, starting from left to right.
4. If a card pops out during the process, set it aside! It's special.
5. Place the first two cards together.
6. Place the third, fourth, and fifth cards together.
7. Place the last two cards together.
8. If there's a special eighth card, set it aside.

HOW TO READ

1. Your Past
   The first two cards tell the story of your past. They could be events that inspired your question. They may be related, or they could be two different factors. Take your time figuring them out!
2. Your Present
   The second row of cards describes your current situation in great detail. Life can be complicated, and these three cards will highlight the major factors influencing you right now. Look back at your past and consider how those events influenced your present.
3. Your Future
   The third row of cards is the answer to your question. Given where you've been and where you are now, these cards show how things will be resolved. Is the answer what you were hoping for? Will there be unexpected circumstances?
4. The Controller
   Did you get a special eighth card? This one can be applied to your whole reading. If it's a Herrr Draw, everything will come to pass in the best possible way. The negative aspects aren't as bad as they seem. If it's a Dark Draw, everything is at risk. The result may not even happen at all! What might look like good fortunes could have unfortunate side effects, so be careful!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

IAN FLYNN is a Charlotte-born, Toronto- based freelance writer. He's best known for his fifteen-year run on Sonic the Hedgehog media. Ian has contributed to numerous properties across comics, television, streaming media, and video games. He co-hosts a Q&A podcast that tackles fans' questions called "The BumbleKast." ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATORS

EVAN STANLEY is a writer and artist tucked into the woods of Washington State. She can usually be found working on the Sonic the Hedgehog series, whether in comics, animations, or behind- the-scenes work. In her free time, she explores the outdoors and enjoys all things strange and spooky.

GIGI DUTREIX is an illustrator based in southern Louisiana. She works on Sonic the Hedgehog, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, and more as a creative artist. When she's not working on hedgehogs, she usually spends her time feeding her pet bird the grandest treats.
